

Dear customers,

10 March 2021

ULVAC Components News Sales Termination (Revised)

We informed that we would stop sales of the following product along with the release of the successor models, by ULVAC Components News (No.899PY_C, issued on 12 February). We set the sales end date as "31 May, 2021 (schedule may be advanced depending on the stock status)", however we have received more orders than expected since then. Please be informed that we will change the sales end date to "As soon as the present stock run out." We would appreciate if you could use the compatible successor models.
